The Inn, a Ninety Room Hotel, is beautifully located, fronting the river near the entrance just outside the gate.

Chautauqua Hotel, Piasa, Ill

The Inn will again this season be under the management of Mr. C. E. Gillen of East St. Louis, an experienced hotel man. Mr. Gillen knows how to care for guests. Prior to June 1st, address C. E. Gillen, Illmo Hotel, East St. Louis, Ills., after June 1st, address the Inn, Chautauqua Ill.

THE SPRINGS HOTEL

will again be under the efficient management of the Ladies Civic Improvement Association. They have forty-five rooms neatly furnished, clean and cozy. Third floor is screened and neatly arranged. The ladies have a clean and up-to-date hotel. Rooms only, charges reasonable. Apply Springs Hotel for information.

Ladies will act as ushers at the Auditorium this season looking after the comfort of the guests.

A class in Parliamentary Law will be conducted by Mrs. G. V. R. Mechin each day from August 7th to August 12th inclusive at 11 A. M. This class will meet at the Auditorium. They will take up the complicated form of study but the practical law of procedure in the form of drills, etc. The day has come when the art of presiding is as much a part of our education as our grammar or etiquette.

Miss Vera Haines, General Secretary of the Alton Y. W. C. L. will give the children instructions from 10 to 12 o'clock on four days a week in July. She is a graduate of a Chicago School and knows how to train children.

ATHLETICS FOR 1916.

We have now four tennis courts and three croquet grounds for the use of our Chautauquans and their visitors. See program dates for games arranged.

THE CHILDREN.

At Chautauqua the children live and play out-of-doors all day long. They are safe unattended any where about the ground and mothers can feel contented and be greatly benefitted by their vacation at this great children's resort.

THE CHILDREN'S POOL.

This is for the little tots and the water will be changed every second day. Free swings and sand piles will be in readiness for the little folks. We want them to make good use of our children's play grounds near the Springs Hotel. Mothers are always welcome.

MOVING PICTURES.

The directors have arranged with Mr. Sauvage through their Chairman Mr. Nelson Levis for the finest moving pictures ever shown on the grounds. The pictures will be clean, and entertaining. While we want the children to enjoy the pictures we have also had in mind the entertaining of the parents and their guests, and have arranged for the best pictures in the country to please all.

ARTS AND CRAFTS.

The large dining hall at the Springs Hotel will again be used as the Hall of Arts and Crafts where all kinds of fancy work will be taught.

Miss Belle Patrick will again have charge of the Embroidery, crochet, and all kinds of needle work.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson will have charge of the classes in Crepe Paper work. Instructions will be given in making flowers, and favors also weaving of crepe rope baskets and lamp shades and various novelties new in 1916.

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS AND BOARDING HOUSES.

The Inn opens June 1st to Sept. 1st; it has ninety rooms finely furnished, located on the river outside Chautauqua gate. C. E. Gillen, the popular hotel man, will again be in charge of this beautiful Summer hotel, and will make special rates. See his booklet for all information.

Springs Hotel will again be under the efficient management of the Ladies Civic Improvement Association. They have forty-five rooms neatly furnished clean and cozy. The third floor has been screened and is neatly arranged. Apply at the Hotel for information reference to accomodation. Rooms only. Charges reasonable.

RESTAURANT.

The restaurant will be in charge of the Chautauqua Catering Company, who will furnish the finest meals. Breakfast and supper thirty-five cents and dinner fifty cents. Cleanliness and plenty to eat is their motto for 1916. They will serve delicatessen as well. In other words you can get what you want and good at that.

KENTUCKY HOME.

This popular boarding house will be in charge of Mrs. McCrellis of Medora Ills. a daughter of Mrs. Barnes, and she will furnish meals and rooms, and take care of guests with pleasure. Write her about your coming. Mrs. Barnes will be in charge of the rooms.

BELLVIEW.

Patrons and guests and Chautauquans will be pleased to know that Mr. and Mrs. Bell have returned from California, and will again greet their friends at the popular Bellview, where they will furnish good meals and good rooms at reasonable rates. They ask you to come and make a home with them.

STEP INN.

Mrs. Brown and daughter Miss Effie Stalder will again care for their guests at their new dining room near the Jersey gate and they will furnish rooms at their W. R. C. Cottage next door. They have a clean and cool place, and will make it homelike for their guests. Apply to Mrs. Mary Brown, Chautauqua, Ill., for rates.

We are proud of our boarding houses, of our restaurant and of our hotels and we are optimistic that hundreds are coming to enjoy their vacation and a happy Summer with these popular people.

TIME OF TRAINS.

For time of trains see small folders to be had at any of the stations. As there are liable to be changes in time during the Chautauqua Assembly we have decided not to publish the time table but refer you to parties at the various stations who will give you the time of all trains to and from Chautauqua to all points.

Mrs. H. E. Dixon, will have charge of the beauty parlor and demonstrations of various articles of wearing apparel and household conveniences will be given.

Nothing we can say, no pictures we can reproduce, will give you an idea of Chautauqua, its environs, its atmosphere of hope and cheer and goodness. To know Chautauqua you must become a Chautauquan.

Our Chautauqua song for 1916 will be as follows to the old tune, "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean."

Of course we will meet at Chautauqua,
Of course we will smile and feel free.
When moonlight we'll motor the river,
Or spoon on the bluffs, don't you see.

Chorus.

Swing high, swing low, We love Chautauqua, zoom, zoom we do.
Swing high, swing low, We love Chautauqua we do.

We'll know all the kids at Chautauqua,
And when they are quiet at night.
We'll sit on the porch with their sister,
At Chautauqua, that thing is all right.

Help us in every way you can to make the year 1916 a great success. Here in "God's Great Out of Doors" you should have the time of your life. Be happy, Keep smiling. Sing the Chautauqua song.
